

Fig.6. A portion of the whole building energy which can be saved in Minneapolis by the replacement of conventional wood frame walls by massive walls.